Directors Report Summary

- At the bottom of page 41 is an update about State Aid. Revenues from state aid are expected to remain consistent with past dollar amounts.
- On page 42 and 43 is information about a petition that over 200,000 library affiliated individuals have signed regarding Macmillan Publishers and their limiting of readers’ access to new eBook titles through the libraries.
- On page 44 are the start-up costs for the new Café. However, additional legal fees pertaining to the contract/Café name are pending. Trustee Wood asked if there has been any feedback from the Café management company. Director Farkas acknowledged that we are very pleased with the Café and she will do a 3 month follow up to make sure they are also pleased with the arrangements. Director Farkas revealed that there is an article that will be in the upcoming Engage Magazine that discusses the student involvement in the Café. Currently there are six students that are in the building that are in the transition program.
- On page 47 is the 1st draft proposed drawing for the Main Entrance Awning. This is a first rendering of what it might look like if the Library added an enclosure to help protect the building lobby from the Northeast winds and weather. The enclosure is temporary and will be used during the winter months to create a barrier from the weather. Director Farkas has met with the City of Novi Community Development Director and the City of Novi Fire Marshal. This rendering is for informational purposes and more is to come.
- On the bottom of page 47 are two photos of the proposed design for the Library Van Wrap. The top photo will most likely be chosen. Also, there is an opportunity for up to six sponsors to be featured on the back of the van. The Library van color scheme will most likely be duplicated for the Lending Library.
- On pages 48-51 is the November eNewsletter.
- On page 52 is a flyer featuring Diamond Jim Brady’s, they are celebrating 65 years and hosting a Bistro Experience at the Library on January 6th. Registration is required.
